LAGERLÖF IN GERMANY

[call for papers]

INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM
HUMBOLDT UNIVERSITY, BERLIN
1 OCTOBER 2016 09.00 – 16.00
[Call for papers]

Selma Lagerlöf symposium in Berlin, Humboldt University, 1 October 2016.

Humboldt University and Karlstad University warmly invite researchers in Germany, Sweden and around the world, as well as any other interested parties, to attend with or without papers.

The symposium is a follow up of an International conference held in London 2011 that resulted in the publication in 2014 of Re-Mapping Lagerlöf. Performance, Intermediality and European Transmissions. The aim now is to create new networks around her authorship in preparation for a new International conference to be held in Sweden 2018.

The focus in Berlin is on Selma Lagerlöf and Germany and we welcome different perspectives, for instance Lagerlöf's importance for German literature and culture, translations and intermedial approaches...

Already on the program are Lagerlöf researchers from Germany, USA and Sweden: Jennifer Watson, Madison USA on "Lagerlöf and German literature", "Lagerlöf during the Nazi years", Ann-Sofie Ljung Svensson, Malmö Sweden on "Lagerlöf und die deutsche Heimatliteratur", Gunilla Rising Hintz, Marburg Germany on "Lagerlöfs frühe Übersetzer ins Deutsche", Lisbeth Stenberg, Göteborg, Sweden on Re-Mapping Lagerlöf.

Proposals for 20 minute lectures in the form of abstracts (ca. 250-300 words) can be submitted to Lisbeth Stenberg (stenberg.lisbeth@gmail.com) and Therese Korritter at Humboldt university (therese.korritter@hu-berlin.de), deadline is 15 Mars 2016.

The languages during the conference will be German and English.

To take part in the symposium is free of charge for all participants. Grants from The Swedish Foundation for humanities and social sciences (RJ) make the arrangement possible. Similar symposiums take place in Tokyo and Moscow.

The complete program will be available on 1 June 2016.
Final date to sign up will be 1 September 2016.

Should you have any questions regarding proposed speaking topics please contact the coordinator Lisbeth Stenberg, or concerning practical matters Therese Korritter.

Welcome!
